Sun and Boat no. 32
Olaf Kühnemann
Oil and pencil on paper, 29.7 × 21 cm, 2014

Olaf Kühnemann lives and works in Berlin and Tel Aviv. He was born in Basel, Switzerland in 1972, and at 8 years old moved to Israel with his parents. The family lived in Herzliya next door to the established Israeli artist, Zvi Lachman, who Olaf considers a meaningful influence on his life and with whom he began his artistic training. Later, young Olaf became his assistant.

He has taught at the Midrasha School of Art, Beit Berl College and the Avni Institute.

He has exhibited in prominent galleries and museums in Israel and abroad, including the Israel Museum in Jerusalem and the Tel Aviv Museum of Art. He is the recipient of several prizes.

How does the artist describe his work? “I feel I cannot as yet put a definition on my work. While it is becoming clearer and more focused, I am still learning, still searching for my language. One thing I know: I am a painter. I am totally concentrated on painting. I may play with sculpture and photography, but finally, it all becomes a painting.”
